FACTS

WHAT DO THE TD BANK COMPANIES DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?
Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?
The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:
- Social Security Number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

How?
All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons the TD Bank Companies choose to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
This privacy notice applies to the entities within the TD Bank US Holding Company family which are listed below (collectively the “TD Bank Companies”) to the extent that they do not have their own privacy notices.

What we do

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>How do the TD Bank Companies protect my personal information?</th>
<th>To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| How do the TD Bank Companies collect my personal information? | We collect your personal information, for example, when you:
  • Open an account or deposit money
  • Pay your bills or apply for a loan
  • Use your credit or debit card
We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies. |
| Why can’t I limit all sharing? | Federal law gives you the right to limit only:
  • Sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
  • Affiliates from using your information to market to you
  • Sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you
State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law. |
| What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? | Your choice to limit marketing offers from our affiliates will apply only to you, unless you tell us to apply it to everyone on your account. |

Definitions

Affiliates
